Character Design and Storyboarding Workshop at DigiPen VALA Art Center Scholarship Program 2017

Purpose: To provide a one-time scholarship to (4) eligible students from ages 13 to 17 to participate in a 3-day Character Design and Storyboarding workshop series, as part of educational programming for GAME ON! The Art of Game Design exhibition presented by VALA Art Center, sponsored by 4Culture Tech Specific Grant and in partnership with DigiPen Institute of Technology.

Four (4) scholarships will be awarded to a total of four students selected by VALA Art Center's Scholarship Committee. The award will be used by four (4) selected recipients to cover the 3-day workshop individual registration fee.

Summary: VALA Art Center is excited to offer four (4) merit-based scholarships for the 3- Day Character Design and Storyboarding Workshop for students ages 13 to 17. DigiPen instructors will teach the classes on site at the DigiPen Campus in Redmond Washington. All materials and class instruction will be covered. Transportation to and from DigiPen's campus must be provided by the student/family. The scholarships are generously sponsored by the Calladine and Katz families.

To Apply:

To be considered as a scholarship candidate, please provide a one (1) page cover letter describing your creative interest and any recent achievements you would like to include in your application. Additionally, please select, and answer one (1) of the following questions below. Your response will give our scholarship committee a little insight about you and creatively speaking, what you've been thinking about lately. Now...the GAME is On! --- are you ready?
